Grand Jury Indicts Woman for Second Degree Murder After Road Rage Incident Turns Fatal

ORLANDO, Fla. – On Tuesday, Feb. 25, the Orange County Grand Jury formally indicted Tina Allgeo, 47, for Second Degree Murder (with a firearm) in the fatal shooting of Mihail Tsvetkov.

On Dec. 2, 2024, Orlando Police received a 911 call and responded to the intersection of E. Colonial Drive and Primrose Drive where they found the victim in the middle of the road suffering from a gunshot wound. The investigation revealed the defendant and the victim were involved in a road rage incident that escalated and turned fatal when Allgeo shot Tsvetkov.

The Grand Jury returned an indictment of Second Degree Murder (with a firearm) against Allgeo after the State’s presentation. Allgeo is also formally charged with Aggravated Battery with a Deadly Weapon in this case.

“This is a case of great public importance that needed to be reviewed by the Grand Jury to determine whether the evidence supported an indictment,” State Attorney Monique Worrell said. She is committed to reducing gun violence in our community and emphasizes incidents like this will be taken seriously. “Gun violence stemming from senseless disputes will not be tolerated, and our office will hold those who commit these acts accountable.”

The defendant was booked into the Orange County jail on Wednesday, Feb. 26 on no bond.

Check the Orange County Clerk of Court’s website for the latest updates on court hearings.

This is an active and ongoing case and we are unable to provide additional information at this time.

Charges are merely an allegation and all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
